MURDER FEARED AS POLICE HUNT SOCIAL LEADER

Mrs. Alice Parsons, 38, Registerite, Disappears From Home

$25,000 DEMANDED IN UNSIGNED NOTE

Maid Tells Authorities Of Call by Middle-aged Couple

(By Associated Press)
STONY BROOK, N. Y., June 10.—Two theories—kidnaping or murder—confronted government investigators seeking to unravel the mystery today of the disappearance of Mrs. Alice Parsons, 38, New York social registerite, from her fashionable North Shore home on Long Island.

Boistering the abduction theory was a note, pencilled on cheap white ruled paper, enclosed in a cheap white envelope, addressed to William H. Parsons, husband of the missing woman. Parsons is a Yale graduate and retired business man.

Death Is Hinted

The note was unsigned. It demanded $25,000 and contained the sinister suggestion that police activity might mean death for Mrs. Parsons.

In support of the murder theory was a blood-stained axe, found on the grounds of the Parsons' chicken farm. The investigators carefully wrapped the axe and expected to make an analysis of the stains, though it was suggested the axe might have been used to kill children.

The ransom note was found last night shortly after Parsons, returning from a trip to New York City and finding his wife missing, notified the state police barracks at Bay Shore, on the south side of the island.

It was addressed to "Bill Parsons." The authorities would not disclose its contents, but it was learned from a reliable source the note read:

"I have your wife. Bring $25,000 to the Jamaica bus terminal within the next 24 hours and my men will meet you and call you by name. Do not bring any cops. If you do Alice will never speak to you again."

Both Well-to-do

Mrs. Parsons, the former Alice W. McDonnell, was said to be worth about $200,000, of which she recently inherited $50,000. Her husband, too, was said to be well-to-do.

The story of Mrs. Parsons' disappearance came from Mrs. Anna Kuznetsov, described by the police as a high-born Russian woman, who had worked for the Parsons family about four years.

Mrs. Kuznetsov, Assistant District Attorney Joseph S. Arata of Suffolk county reported, said a middle-aged couple called for Mrs. Parsons yesterday morning at the Parsons' home, "Long Meadow Farm," and that she drove off with them.

URGENT FEDERAL CONTROL OVER LABOR GROUPS

Manufacturers, Before Congress, Ask Reasonable Restraint

INTERRUPTION OF WORK IS STRESSED

Point Out That Consumer Ultimately Will Pay For It

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 10.—A spokesman for the National Association of Manufacturers asked congress today to consider reasonable controls over labor organizations.

James A. Emery, the association's general counsel, testifying against wage and hour provisions of the labor standards bill, said:

"We are confronted at present with unjustifiably interrupted production where collective agreements have been made, local disorder is spreading and costly strife will reflect itself in commodity prices."

"We can not believe that the labor organizations of the United States are unwilling to accept the same responsibility to the public within the field of commerce that its properly imposed upon business organizations."

"If the indirect control of production in the name of commerce proposed in this bill is valid, it is equivalent to an assertion that every strike is a restraint of trade and an obstruction of commerce."

Emery asked separation of child labor provisions from the rest of the bill. He said the Manufacturers' association believes in barring persons under 16 from industry and persons under 18 from hazardous employment.

He opposed, however, "the vast and ambiguous power granted to a board of five to limit the earning power of labor, the hours of production and conditions of employment."

"We believe the underlying conception of the commerce power here asserted x x x will obliterate the last vestige of local self-government," he said.

"The bill is so ambiguous that thousands of citizens will be uncertain as to when and where the law applies to their industry and the character of their obligation. x x x Anyone may come within the indeterminate range of the bill's artillery, and no one knows how far it shoots."

Saginaw Valley's Work Resumed As Power's Turned On

FLINT, Mich., June 10.—The Saginaw valley's half million inhabitants—whose work and play was disrupted for nearly 24 hours by the second strike of Consumers Power company employees in three weeks—resumed normal pursuits today.

Russell B. Palmer, district manager, said in Saginaw that the power company's 1,200 or more employees would return to work immediately, on their regular shifts. He said "ample power" was assured for all industries.

Employees of a key substitution at Zilwaukee, Mich., ratified early today an agreement which a negotiations committee brought by plane from Washington. Their vote was 44 to 18.

Had they rejected the proposals, the City of Saginaw would have lacked sufficient power for industrial purposes despite the fact that Saginaw strikers themselves had ratified the pact earlier by a 65 to 22 vote and thrown the switches that provided illumination for darkened homes.

In Bay City, strikers voted to restore service and return to work, but did not actually ratify the agreement, which Robert Travis, United Automobile Workers of America organizer, said provided the Committee for Industrial Organization without sole bargaining rights and granted employees wage increases. They were to vote on the agreement today, and leaders predicted acceptance.

Going Up!

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.—A man charged with illegal possession of a gallon of whisky told Mayor J. Scott McPayden $1 a gallon was too tempting, and that was why he bought it.

"The price this morning is $11.20," said his honor as he imposed a $5 fine and costs.

Woman Is Missing

ALLIANCE, June 10.—Police were asked to assist in locating Mrs. Florence Riddle, 44, of Ashland ave., who disappeared from her home early Tuesday. She left a note saying her family would not see her again.

POLICE, PICKETS IN CLASH

Fight Hand-to-Hand At Gates of Republic Plant

(By Associated Press)
YOUNGSTOWN, June 10.—Police and sheriff's deputies clashed with Great Lakes steel strike pickets here early today, leaving 17 persons injured even as plans went forward for reopening a Republic Steel Corp. plant at Monroe, Mich. In the face of a barricade which John L. Lewis unionists said would number "8,000 to 10,000" men.

Hand-to-hand fighting broke out at the rain-swept gates of the strike-closed Republic plant in this northeastern Ohio industrial city as a food-laden truck roared down a viaduct ramp into the mill, occupied by maintenance men and company guards.

Tear Gas Used

Tear gas and night sticks were brought into play by the 50 policemen and deputies against a force of several hundred strikers. The strikers gave way only after at least 14 of their number were gassed. Two policemen received head injuries and a spectator was wounded by an exploding tear gas shell.

The newest outbreak of violence in the bloody controversy which already has cost eight lives overshadowed peace moves by government of Ohio and Michigan in the steel workers organizing committee strike for signed contracts.

The 20 pickets on duty under the viaduct amid a heavy rainfall shouted to fellow unionists for aid at the plant entrance. They claimed a police squad card escorted the food truck. Police said their cruiser "by coincidence" had preceded the truck but that the cruiser did not enter company grounds.

Pickets placed a car across the road under the viaduct, blocking it. Police attempted to remove the car. Strikers surrounded them in steadily increasing numbers.

Fighting Breaks Out

Suddenly fighting broke out. Tear gas was released and night sticks brought into play and the melee ended. Many received minor injuries.

Fourteen pickets were arrested, marched to waiting armored trucks.

TWO ARRESTED ON THEFT COUNT

Youths, One Paroled, Picked Up By Police After Robbery At Filling Station

Two Salem boys who broke into the Liberty gasoline station, East Pershing st., and South Lundy ave., early Monday morning, but obtained only 58 cents for their troubles, were arrested and placed in jail by police yesterday.

They are Andrew Kenst, Jr., 20, and Casper Romaine, 17, who late today are to be arraigned before Mayor George Harroff on charges of breaking and entering.

Because the station was entered the same way a year ago, by cutting a hole through the rear room wall, police believe the pair responsible for the theft at that time. One of the boys is paroled from an industrial school.

The theft of $25 worth of brass from the Salem Brass Foundry, rear of 412 Wilson st., was reported by Frank D. Pink, 940 Summit st., the owner, to police today. The theft was made early yesterday morning when the person or persons, who made away with the metal raised a side window in the shop and lifted the pieces of brass out of a nearby container.

One of three women, who entered a downtown jewelry store at noon Wednesday, walked out with a diamond, picked up from a tray on the counter, police were informed.

E. Liverpool Loses Money For Relief

EAST LIVERPOOL, June 10.—Councilmanic hope of using a $9,000 surplus in a $115,000 debt liquidation bond issue, to bear part of a $5,000-a-month relief bill of 1,012 indigents here, was abandoned today, when City Auditor Shelton J. Overdorf said the money must be turned over to the sinking fund trustees.

The state bureau of accounting and inspection of public offices advised this unexpended fund must be used to liquidate the bond issue, and it cannot be spent for relief or other purposes except debts contracted prior to Jan. 1, 1936," Overdorf explained.

Outing Is Enjoyed By District Nurses

Miss Esther Wilson, superintendent of Salem City hospital, Miss Mary Ann Sox, Miss Erna Mendenhall and Mrs. Rachel Steitz, nurses, attended the annual picnic of District No. 3 of the Ohio State Nurses association at Liberty park in Girard yesterday. About 100 nurses from the district were present.

Contests and games were played in the afternoon, followed by a dinner at 6 p. m. Group singing and awarding of prizes to winners of contests followed the dinner. A softball game was cancelled because of rain.

The next meeting of the district group will be held the second Wednesday in July with Miss Golda Kilpatrick of Youngstown as program chairman.

UP A MILLION

Sometime within the next two weeks the general assembly will be convened in special session to consider an appropriation bill for the next two years.

This will be the second attempt to get action on an appropriation bill. The first attempt failed because the Davey administration ran headlong into an economy bloc in the senate.

So the legislature adjourned, to allow time for a compromise. The new proposed budget, however, calls for approximately a million dollars more than the original one. This is said to be Gov. Davey's answer to the economy bloc.

There seems only one way to interpret it. Gov. Davey is not interested in curtailing expenses. That will be interesting to Ohioans who remember what Mr. Davey said when he was trying to get elected.

OVERLOOKED

Maybe the toughest labor problem of all is the one which gets the least attention.

Wives and mothers know all about it, but they lack spokesmen to present their case.

There's nothing sensational anyway in trying to feed a family and meet obligations without enough money. It's just sordid and miserable.

Home makers never know how long a strike is going to last, yet their job is to make the cash and the credit, when the cash runs out, last just a little longer than the strike.

They don't all feel the same way about the issues of the strike itself, of course. They take sides, just like their husbands, and not all of them agree with their husbands, either.

Labor organizers, knowing they can't appeal successfully to a workman whose wife has the opposite viewpoint, try to get as many women as possible on their side.

Some day, everybody hopes, the machinery of labor relationships will be so efficient that strikes will be unnecessary and undesirable.

ON WHEELS

A Los Angeles bank had an idea. Many of its customers used automobiles to travel to and from the bank. But to transact their business at the teller's window, they had to park their cars, walk to the bank from a parking place and walk back.

The bank, therefore, established a teller's window in an adjacent garage. Customers on wheels now drive up to the window, do their banking business from their automobiles and drive away. At least one phase of the parking problem has been solved for such customers.

The idea's not new; some department stores have been using it successfully, with store garages. Refreshment stands and even a few open air movie theaters have solved the parking problem by making it possible for patrons to remain in their automobiles, if they choose.

The time is coming more rapidly than pessimists can see when a civilization on wheels will take steps to bridge the gap between the too small and too elusive parking place and the motorist's destination. If Arthur Brisbane were alive, he would be among the first to promote a new type of commercial building—a structure to accommodate double lines of traffic with customer-drivers doing their shopping from behind the steering wheel.

O.O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, June 10—New York used to have several clubs where actors, authors and sundry creative folk could meet their kind once a week and let themselves go. Such organizations as the Kit Kat, The Sixty and The Mayfair. Late Saturday night affairs that edged into sunup with bing and go.

They were the generating ground for many romances. Billie Burke's and Flo Ziefeld's. Billy Seeman and Phyllis Haver. And others. The requirements for admittance were finely drawn. Only those who had achieved in the arts were allowed past the entrance ropes.

The clubs made tidy sums for several sponsors who could work 20 weeks a year and lead the life of Riley the rest of the time with the profits. Today there is no such club and not likely to be any more. Letting down the bars was their undoing.

People, in the vernacular, Who Didn't Matter but had plenty of money got over the barriers. And their number increased astonishingly. Soon all the regulars, resenting the change, absented themselves, and when they did the gate crashers, of course, were no longer interested.

One of New York's most picturesque millionaires is the porcine subway builder, Sam Rosoff, whose headline escapades have run the gamut from flash spending to suspicion in a murder mystery. He is the rollicking, brawny and booming personification of American Opportunity. An immigrant boy from Russia who has continued to be the proverbial diamond in the rough, he lives at a smart avenue inn, rides in sartorial grandeur in the park, gives Lucullan dinners and is the most extravagant tipper the night clubs have ever had.

Monotype: There is a species of young lady who comes bobbing into the bars at cocktail time, bright, brave and bewildered. She has the appearance of not having been awake long and there is a slight husk to her voice often associated with gin and cigarettes. There is always a group willing gladly to have her join them and exchange brilliant banter for a flock of drinks. She leaves at the dinner hour a bit unsteadily and that is all that is seen of her. Never in cafes at dinner, at the theatre or night clubs. She is the Manhattan Cocktail Girl, and I was told the other evening that many hold responsible positions as secretaries or in sales departments. They like to have their sundown fling solitaire, then go to some quiet tea room for dinner and to bed early.

It is often noted that when a famous maitre d'hotel leaves a favored post he has occupied a long time and goes to some more tempting offer he is almost invariably on way to oblivion. No one knows why, but a head waiter's following will not follow him when he decides to move. Once they lose cast they rarely come back. Today there are a dozen head waiters of ten years ago, whose welcoming smiles, were highly prized but who changed their jobs, and today you may run across them in obscure side street restaurants or, in instances, merely serving as waiters.

Tommy Lyman continues to be the crooning marvel of the night club. A sad-eyed, shy and band-box neat lone wolf, he has been whispering his torchy laments for 15 years. Long before the Valleys and Crosbys were ever heard of. In London, Paris, New York and Palm Beach. Away from the night haunts, where he wanders from table to table, he pokes about botanical gardens and is always sending flowers to his friends. Lyman frequently sang for the Duke of Windsor, when, as the Prince of Wales, he was making the incognito rounds of Paris with Jed Kiley.

Thingumbobs: The Duke of Kent is a collector of ornate cuff links. John McCormack now retired, has salvaged the biggest fortune out of his voice of any singer. Summer Blossom is such a slider around in the editorial chair that he buys four pairs of pants with each suit. Lowell Thomas likes to arrive for his broadcasting engagements just in the nick of time. It makes him forget all thoughts of nervousness. Victor Moore is one of America's richest actors, most of his money coming from his savings as a standard vaudeville act. Noel Coward reveals Alexander Woolcott in his autobiography as his closest American friend.

Not many graphic writers have been able in several paragraphs to sum up the endless milling and jostling of New York crowds as did a Texan in three words after his first walk up Fifth avenue at the busy home-going hour. As he weaved through the ceaseless flow, he finally stopped for a moment on the curb, glanced up and down, and murmured: "Many a human!"

THE STARS SAY :

For Friday, June 11

A progressive and probably strenuous day may be presaged from the rule of the highly-stimulated planetary tendencies, both by lunar and mutual aspects. The mind will be keen and the energies under high pressure for putting over important projects, in which the indorsement or substantial co-operation of influential persons or institutions is assured. It is a time for pushing to such high goals with decisiveness and initiative. Writings and contracts thrive and employment is satisfactory.

If This Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is face a year in which their energies will be highly stimulated, expansive and progressive. It is a time for forging ahead to high goals. Employment and writings should prosper.

A child born on this day may be talented, energetic, forceful and ambitious and should carve a conspicuous career for itself and associates by its boldness, initiative, enthusiasm and generosity. It may be proud and benevolent, popular and influential.

Jim Farley was greeted at Richmond, we read, by 50 cars of "politicians and postmasters". Which of those words if any, was not superfluous?—Kansas City Star.

In all the years the League of Nations has been organized, we have yet to hear of a case of prostration from overwork.—Ohio State Journal.

The League of Nations is far from being entombed, says a writer. Maybe it's just been embalmed.—Atlanta Georgian.

New Complications Aggravate Spanish Crisis

New complications added to the seriousness of the crisis precipitated by the Nazi reprisal shelling of the Spanish city of Almeria after the bombing of the German battleship Deutschland when Italy threatened to stop and search Russian ships carrying supplies to Spain. Figuratively, while Mussolini watches to the north against a possible move of Soviet air strength, Dictator Stalin of Russia follows the maneuvers of Fascist warships in the Mediterranean. At the same time, France and England sought to avert any new outbreak and Germany declared herself "satisfied". Italian warships also established a virtual blockade of eastern Spain to prevent Russia landing munitions.

TUBERCULOSIS

Few of us really appreciate what marked progress has been made in the detection of disease. When I first started to practice medicine, many of the ailments now well understood were difficult to recognize. Too often they were discovered when it was too late to effect a cure.

Although the x-ray was first discovered in 1895, its general use as a means of recognizing tuberculosis dates back only to 1916. Since then tremendous strides have been made in the perfection of the x-ray apparatus. Now it has become an agent of great value in finding certain forms of tuberculosis which otherwise might have been overlooked.

Tuberculosis may be present and yet cause few symptoms. Dependable signs of the disease may not exist. The sufferer does not realize he is harboring the germs of a serious disease. Certainly he does not know he has an ailment that is a menace to others as well as himself. But if an x-ray picture is taken of the chest, the disease may be immediately recognized.

The x-ray is capable of penetrating substances that ordinarily shut out all chance of inspection. In tuberculosis there are certain localized substances which cast shadows on the photographic film. When such shadows appear on the plate, it is usually because of some disease in the lung.

Answers to Health Queries
C. D. L. Q.—Is there a permanent way to remove superfluous hair on the upper lip and around the chin?

A.—For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Miss E. A. J. Q.—I have a lump on the inside of my cheek. I have had it about a year. It goes away and comes back but never goes away completely. There are times I happen to bite it when I'm eating; otherwise it doesn't hurt. What can I do for it?

A.—Consult your physician and have an examination made. Your doctor will advise you.

L. H. K. Q.—I am subject to so-called "car sickness." Have tried many things to overcome this trouble but have been unsuccessful. Can you suggest anything?

R.—This may be due to a number of disorders. For further particulars restate your question and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Shadows on Plate
The diagnosis of tuberculosis of the lungs is made by the appearance and location of such shadows. By means of the x-ray it is possible to detect the presence of post-tuberculosis. Of course, if a cavity, abscess or other pronounced abnormality is present, there will be more positive symptoms and signs serving to arouse suspicion. In such cases the doctor can recognize the condition without the x-ray. But the use of the x-ray, merely confirms the diagnosis, and is also of value in determining the progress of the disease.

I am often asked whether a diagnosis of tuberculosis can be made from a reading of the x-ray film alone. A positive diagnosis should not be made on that evidence because other diseases in the lung may give similar signs.

Christian Science Church Reports

BOSTON, Mass., June 10.—Progress in the Christian Science Church is reported in the organization and recognition of new churches and societies; in sales increases of 66 per cent for the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science; in an increasingly friendly public thought as reflected by legislative bodies when handling measures involving medical and religious freedom; and in much good feeling work featured reports by church officers at the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Election Announced
The election of Judge Clifford P. Smith of Newton, Mass., as church president for the coming year, Edward L. Rippley of Brookline as treasurer, and Ezra W. Palmer of Haverhill, as clerk, was announced.

The president is elected by the Christian Science board of directors to serve for one year. His duty is to presiding officer at the annual meeting.

The fact that the Christian Science denomination has 2781 branches was cited and Miss M. Rosamond Wright, manager of the department of branches and practitioners, reported further for the year, "Good growth in our movement is shown through the organization and recognition of 59 new churches and societies as branches of The Mother Church, and six new university organizations. Twenty-five of these branches are in Europe, 30 in North America, two in Australia, one in Africa, and one in South America."

Sales Reported
William M. Bartlett, secretary of trustees under the will of Mary Baker Eddy, reported that sales of Mrs. Eddy's writings in 1936 increased 66 per cent over sales in 1935. An accounting of expenditures in excess of $200,000 during the year ended April 30 was also rendered. In fulfillment of the purpose of the will, the items for which this fund is used included assisting 33 churches and societies in erecting, purchasing or remodeling buildings; helping churches with lecture activities; and for free distribution of Christian Science literature.

In the report of the manager of committees on publication, C. Augustus Norwood declared:

During the year, secular newspapers published approximately one hundred thousand excerpts from our lessons, sermons, each of which showed that Christian Science is based on the Bible.

Judge Frederick C. Hill, chairman of The Christian Science board of lectureship, reported 3216 lectures, 53 were given in Africa, 54 in Australia, seven in Hawaii, China, Japan and Manila, one in the City of Mexico, eight in Bermuda, Canal Zone and West Indies, 22 in Great Britain and Ireland, 29 in Continental Europe and Scandinavia, and 2722 in Canada, the United States and Alaska.

DETROIT—A young man here has launched in business and the results are more than gratifying. He is Allen Gregory, 10, and his business is washing neighborhood dogs after school, on Saturdays and during that part of the Sabbath when he is not in church.

Blaze In Germany Takes Five Lives

HALLE, GERMANY, June 10.—Piercing burning fire, fed by inflammable acids, killed at least five persons and injured four others today in a freight depot.

Nine other employees of the yards still were missing.

The mysterious blaze, railway administration officials said, destroyed 120 freight cars loaded with 360 tons of goods and 45 empty cars.

Only the heroism of railway workers prevented a worse disaster. Realizing that some of the damaged cars were filled with tanks of liquid air that would have caused terrific explosions had the fire reached them, they shoved the cars out of danger with the flames at their backs.

The flames, swiftly spread by a series of explosions that showered loading platforms with blazing benzene and acids, were fought by the massed departments of this city, 20 surrounding villages, local factories, Reich labor service detachments, brown-shirted storm troopers and black-shirted "sc" men.

The freight depot and buildings, covering an area of 20,000 square yards, were for the most part completely burned.

The damage was estimated at many millions of marks.

Officials said they were at a loss to account for the origin of the holocaust.

SOCIETY WOMAN OBJECT OF HUNT

Parsons had gone to New York City, 65 miles away, yesterday morning to meet two Russians at Tenth street and Second ave. on the lower east side of Manhattan. The appointment with the Russians, he told Arata, had been made by Mrs. Kopyronova after he had expressed a desire to learn how to make a Russian delicacy called English squab paste.

Mrs. Parsons drove him to the railroad station at St. James about ten miles away and promised to meet him when he returned about sunset.

Parsons told Arata he got off the train at Stony Brook a little after 7 o'clock last night, waited a time for his wife and then, slightly perturbed by her failure to appear, took a taxi home.

From Mrs. Kopyronova he learned his wife had gone off with two apparent strangers, he said. He called police late last night.

MONTREAL — Sleights travel over one narrow street here every day of the year. The sleights are used to exercise horses from a nearby stable. In winter they are heavily loaded, but in summer the horses drag them along the pavement empty.

TORONTO, Ont.—Ontario's 6,000 civil servants will be given wage increases ranging from 5 to 10 percent this year, the first they have received in many years.

Guard Parliament Against Veterans In Amnesty Dispute

(By Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, June 10.—Embittered Belgian war veterans caused a cabinet crisis today by their angry opposition to a government proposal to pardon all Belgians convicted of treason during the World war.
Mounted troops and tanks were thrown about the parliament buildings and strategic points in the capital to prevent a repetition of demonstrations such as one yesterday in which 400 veterans hurled their war decorations on the tomb of the unknown soldier.
The government received a delegation of the veterans in an effort to mollify them but, faced a new outburst when the amnesty measure comes up for action before the senate today.
Veterans who forced their way to the speaker of the senate swore to kill any "traitors who profited by the bill."
The government-supported measure, already passed by the lower house, 95 to 75, affects principally Flemings living in the north of Belgium who sided with Germany during the war in the hope of establishing an independent Flemish state
if Germany won.
Many of these were convicted of treason and citizenship rights were taken from them. Some are still in prison.
In the capital a group of 400 veterans, wearing the "Cross of Fire" decoration won on the field of battle, tore their medals from their breasts, flung them on the tomb of the unknown soldier and decorated the monument with a wreath bearing the legend:
"Brother! Those who soon will join you lay on thy grave the useless pledge their victory won at the expense of so many useless sufferings."

Babe Found Dead
COLUMBUS, June 10 — Police sought today the mother of a newborn babe, found stabbed to death in a field. Corner E. E. Smith said the child had been wounded in the heart a few hours after birth.

Up To Commission

COLUMBUS, June 10.—Holding that only the state tax commission had authority for removal, Common Pleas Judge Dana F. Reynolds yesterday dismissed Gov. Martin L.
Davey as defendant in a suit brought by C. Elbert Black, former chief of the state tax commission, to prevent Black's ouster.

Black named the governor, the state tax commission, Mrs. Myrna Smith, secretary to the governor, and Francis Poulson, state Democratic chairman, as defendants.

They're Twins but Not Sisters

"Through the looking glass"

One might be inclined to think this was just a picture of an attractive young lady looking in a mirror but it is really two girls, Pauline E. Taylor, left, and Pauline Taylor, right, who are "twins" but not sisters. They were born the same day and hour, though one in Canada and one in Detroit, look exactly alike and are similar in nearly every way. Both now live in Detroit, attend the same school, and are the closest of friends.

and lodged in the Mahoning county jail. Beaten on the head with clubs were City Patrolman Roy Welch and Detective Mike Flynn.
"Nig" Ross, who identified himself as a spectator, received a leg wound.
The outbreak came shortly after heads of Republic and Sheet & Tube agreed to be represented at a conference with SWOC leaders Friday in the office of Gov. Martin L.
Davey at Columbus, but declined to attend personally.

At the same time, 200 special police were sworn in at McRoe, Mich., to bulkhead Police Chief Jesse Fisher's force of 20 patrolmen and Sheriff Joseph Bairley's 50 deputies for the announced reopening 1-1-today of Republic's subsidiary, the Newton Steel Co.

Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan obtained an eight-hour delay in the reopening to permit a mid-day peace conference at Lansing, Mich., between the company, SWOC unionists and a "back to work" group, but the company went ahead with determined plans to reopen.

"The plant will open at 4 p. m.
today whether the Lansing negotiations are successful or not," declared Harry H. Holloway, company vice president.

Don't Want Violence
Mayor Daniel A. Knaggs, who had appealed for volunteer deputies "with military experience," said "I instructed the special police, whom we picked very carefully, that we don't want any violence. The special police will be armed with police clubs, at least."

Tom Girdler, 60-year-old Republic board chairman, wired Ohio's governor that he would send J. A.
Voss, industrial relations director, to Columbus for the Friday conference.

Aviators Called In Disaster Probe

SALT LAKE CITY, June 10. —
Two eastern aviators who had to "bail out" in a storm over Nevada headed here today for a conference with flying authorities investigating Utah's December air tragedy that killed seven.

The two, Major Clarence Hodge of the Massachusetts National Guard and Lieutenant Joseph L.
McNeil of Boston, were enroute by train from Ely, Nev., 200 miles west, to relate how they leaped for their lives from an airplane driven out of control by a violent desert blizzard.

"I don't know exactly where the wreckage is—somewhere in the desert between Ely and Elko, Nev., probably—but I think I can find it with the aid of an army map," Major Hodge said.

Enroute from the Pacific coast to Boston Tuesday in a $5,000 Douglas monoplane, the two men "bailed out" when they became lost east of Reno in a furious snowstorm.

Bargains are plentiful. The ads.

Pole squadron of five planes. They will spend a year on the Polar ice, stances surrounding the present situation," Girdler stated.

Replying to Governor Davey's warning of "grave possibilities" in the strike and a plea that "you cannot refrain from fair discussion of the problem around the conference table," Frank Purnell, president of Youngtown Sheet & Tube, wired:

"We stated we were unwilling to sign an agreement with the union.
x x x There is no change in our position on this question. x x x I will be glad, if you desire it, to send you a personal representative."
The strike death toll of eight—only two less than that of the bloody riot 45 years ago this month in the Carnegie Steel Co. walkout at Homestead, Pa., near Pittsburgh —was incurred in a disorder on Sunday of the Memorial day weekend near Republic's South Chicago, Ill., plant, which has continued to operate in the face of grim pickets.

Novel Method of Sulphur Mining Perfected

One of the most unusual engineering methods devised is that used for extracting sulphur in Texas and Louisiana. Because of poison gas which prevents the ordinary methods of mining from being used, hot water is forced down into the deposits far beneath the surface and the limestone flushed clean of its sulphur deposit. When this sulphur solution is pumped back to the surface, it is allowed to evaporate and crystallize in huge vats. When the vats are torn down, miniature mountains of raw sulphur are left, each of them containing hundreds of tons.

THEATER Attractions

Tiffany Thayer, one of America's outstanding writers on crime and rackets, comes through with another winner in "King of Gamblers", a daring story of the slot machine racket as it exists in many cities which is showing as one half of a double feature at the Grand theatre.

The title role is played by Akim Tamiroff, a big time racketeer whose crooked machines mulet a large city of millions yearly. He lavishes this money on a beautiful night club entertainer, Claire Trevor, who does not love him.

She does not know that he is czar of the city's underworld, and when she falls in love with Lloyd Nolan, a newspaperman whose job it is to uncover the slot machine racket, she inadvertently leads to Tamiroff's undoing and the smashing of his racket.

The other half of the Grand's double bill, which ends tonight is an auto racing film under the title "Speed to Spare". It stars Charles Quigley, Eddie Nugent and Dorothy Wilson.

Concluding at the State tonight is that top-spot comedy romance "Met Him in Paris" with Claudette Colbert, Robert Young and Melynn Douglas as its mainstays.

Starting tomorrow at the State for a two-day run will be Spencer Tracy, Gladys George and Franchot Tone in "They Gave Him a Gun", while at the Grand, Buck Jones will appear Friday and Saturday in "Smoke Tree Range".

"Rich Girl-Poor Girl" by FAITH BALDWIN

SYNOPSIS
Young Dr. Jonathan Kimber preferred to succeed on his own merits rather than take over the well established practice of his late father. So he goes to the little town of Riverport to take the place of Dr. Alan Ballard, retired and now living in California. Evelina, his predecessor's meticulous old housekeeper, has everything ready for Jonathan, and Rose Ward, Dr. Ballard's pretty niece, to whom the young physician was greatly attracted when they met a few months previous, invites him to dinner the next night.

"I'm glad to see you. How did things go today?"

CHAPTER VII
A call at the bank proved very satisfactory. His credit was established and his credentials approved. Doctor Ballard had arranged everything and yes, indeed, they were only too glad to open an account.
After the bank, came the hospital. The superintendent received him amiably and he spent the rest of the morning there, going through the wards, watching an operation in progress and later seeing Doctor Jameson, surgical chief, an old, green, man very handsome, with kind blue eyes and wonderful hands. He was courteous and friendly but Jonathan left him to drive home for mid-day dinner feeling rather like a first year medical student all over again.
Evelina, waiting on him announced, "We've always paid cash."
"What's that?" asked Jonathan, looking up from fresh ham and home-baked beans.
"Cash," repeated Evelina firmly. "Doctor Ballard always gave me money the first of the week. I did the marketing. I don't hold with this. Still, if you'd rather—"
Her tone was mildly menacing. "No indeed," said Jonathan. "I wouldn't rather. You just tell me how much—" Later, after she had brought her cent household books for his inspection and the weekly sum had been arranged he thought, "That's all very well, but maybe I should establish some trade credit too—Suppose there aren't any patients? . . . ?"
But there would be a patient. Peter's boy Fred, with the boils.
He walked down Senator Street that night to the tiny wooden house further back from the street than its neighbors, in which the Wards lived. At the stroke of six he was knocking on the door and Rose opened it to him. She said, shaking hands, "I am glad to see you. How did things go today?"
"All right. My stuff hasn't come yet. When it does I may need a helping hand."
"You've Evelina."
"Think she can provide the woman's touch?" he asked, following Rose into the small, pretty living room where Mrs. Ward, a wife of a woman with Rose's eyes, quite beaded and masses of white hair, waited for them. "I doubt it. She's more militant than feminine."
Mrs. Ward smiled at him.
"Evelina's a good woman," she said gently. "I remember her as a girl . . . we were at school together."
Does everyone go to school together in this town? he demanded, staring from one to the other.
"Just about. It depends on your district. We have all of four schools," said Rose gaily.
A supper he said.
"I haven't thanked you for the flowers."
"Out of the garden." Rose told him, "but you've a bigger garden than we—I don't expect however you'll pick your own flowers."
"Won't you?" he asked. "Any time you care to?"
"That would be very kind," said Mrs. Ward before her daughter could reply. "Alan always permitted Rose to strip the garden, for church."
"Church?" repeated Jonathan. "I hope," said Mrs. Ward rather

ALL STEEL and TWO YARDS WIDE

THERE'S a lot more in this picture than meets the eye, though the eye has plenty to sparkle about in the stunning style of this spirited Buick car.

What you don't see here is the lift that's yours when you touch off the flashing power of Buick's valve-in-head straight-eight engine and go streaming off across the map.

What you don't see is the solid, steady feel of Buick — the firm stability that holds you on the line without weave or sway or wander on straightaways or on the curves.

What you don't see is the assurance you'll know once you step on Buick's tiptoe brakes and see how surely and safely they make you master of its power.

We can't picture here the security that's yours in a body of steel-fused-to-steel — with floor, roof, side panels, cowl all welded into one stout unit of protective metal.

And only time can tell you how big is your money's worth in Buick — all steel and two yards wide, a big package that's your one best bet of the field when you add the superb action that gives its metals life.

All we can do is show you how a Buick looks — and handsome as this gallant traveler is, remind you that its good looks are literally the least of what it has to offer. Go try a Buick now!

Actress' Flowers Snatched Away By Souvenir Hunters

GLENDAL, Calif., June 10—The body of Jean Harlow rested today in a cemetery crypt snatched bare of flowers by souvenir hunters, awaiting final disposition by her mother, Mrs. Jean Bello.

The remains may be cremated. If not, they will be placed in a mausoleum in Forest Lawn Memorial park.

Barred from the funeral service yesterday, a crowd waited for hours outside the cemetery, hoping at least to see some of the 260 film notables inside. This they missed but after the brief service was finished and everybody was gone, they rushed through unlocked gates and scrambled for bits of the thousands of flowers. Some had to be content with tiny scraps of fern.

City floral token, however, went with the platinum blonde screen star to her resting place. Placed in her hand just before the casket was closed for the last time, it was a single gardenia, her favorite flower, with the inscription, "good-night, my dearest darling."

The card was unsigned but the handwriting was believed to be that of William Powell, constant escort of Miss Harlow in recent months, who was among the most obviously grief-stricken at the funeral.

Another of the floral tributes that overflowed the funeral chapel was a spray of roses and gardenias with the inscription, "always a loyal friend," in the childish scrawl of the youngest star, Shirley Temple.

The usually suave Powell gave way openly to grief after he stood over the casket for a last look.

SALEM JUNIORS GAIN WIN OVER PALESTINE, 9-6

Three Runs In 5th Give Local Legion Team Second Win

The Salem American Legion Juniors triumphed over East Palestine Juniors for the second time of the season yesterday, winning 9 to 6 in a six-inning game at Peace Valley park, cut short because of darkness.

Three runs in the fifth frame gave the Salem club the victory after East Palestine had tied the score at 6-6 with three markers in the last half of the fourth inning.

Young Wally Davis, 16-year old junior in high school, who pitched a no-hit game and struck out 18 batters in Salem's first meeting with East Palestine, went four innings in the box, then gave way to Snyder, who blanked Palestine in the fifth and sixth frames.

Davis struck out eight batters in the four innings he worked and allowed two hits. Only one of the six runs made by Palestine while Davis was on the mound was earned. The others were scored on errors.

Snyder, in blanking Palestine in two innings to protect the lead the Salem Juniors gained in the first half of the fifth, gave up one hit.

In addition to his three runs in the fifth, Salem scored five times in the second frame and three in the third. Palestine tallied three runs in the second and three in the fourth.

The Palestine starting pitcher, Patton, also worked only four innings before giving way to Hunstan. Together, the two twirlers granted Salem batters eight hits.

Fisher led Salem in batting with two hits out of four trips. He also pitched while Mohr collected two bingles in three trips to lead Palestine hitting.

Yesterday's game was the third the Salem Juniors have played in Columbiana county competition. Two of these contests have been with East Palestine. The other was against the Leetonia Juniors, who handed the local club a 9 to 1 setback.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, June 10.—Some of the experts who have visited Joe Louis' camp insist the Negro is taking James J. Braddock too lightly.... anyway, Joe has used only eight sparring partners so far while at Lakewood last year he exhausted 32 prepwork for Schmeling.

The Cubs are winning and they're cocky and talkative.... They made a big impression here and in Boston.... Beantown fans can't see how the Bruins can miss.... Gabby Hartnett, Charlie Grimm, et al are out-gassing the Gas House Gang.... "The Cards may make the most noise, but they can't produce so many words per minute," writes Arthur Sampson in The Boston Herald.... Six of 16 graduating athletes at Texas Christian this year will take a whirl at pro sports.... Six major league clubs are hot after Les Mueller, ace hurler for the Belleme, Ill., High school team.

A man close to the goings on in big league ball says Charlie Dessen is partly to blame for the plight of the Cincinnati Reds.... this guy says Dessen has every club in the league bearing down on the Reds because of the day he popped off in the spring.... he got in bad when he told the scribes the Reds were going to be rough and tough this year and when a couple of Dodgers were crippled in an exhibition game, the word was passed around the Reds had to be tamed.... so far the boys are doing a passing fair job of it.

NATIONAL OPEN GOLFERS BEGIN PLAY FOR TITLE

Wet Course Greets Star Pros and Amateurs at Oakland Hills

By FRITZ HOWELL

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., June 10.—America's crack golfing brigade went over the top today at Oakland Hills ready for a three-day battle with par in which but one of the 167 combatants had a chance to reach the objective—the 41st National Open championship.

Heavy rains which soaked the battlefield threatened to turn the scrap into a naval engagement unless the weatherman followed the United States Golf association's lead in giving the boys a "break."

U. S. G. A. officials took one look at the tall, tough grass in "no man's land" bordering the fairways and greens, then sent out an S. O. S. for reapers to take in at least a part of the "hay" before the firing started.

Mingled cheers and moans greeted the order. The long hitters, prone to "spray" a tee shot now and then, favored the idea, while the more accurate, shorter-hitting contingent saw the move as a definite threat to their chances.

Defending champion Tony Manero, who blasted his way to the top with a record-shattering 282 at Baltusrol last year, voiced the sentiment of the latter group when he said: "Cutting the rough will help my game but it will hurt my chances to win."

Slammin' Sam Snead, the West Virginian, was in an unusual spot as the 142 professionals and 25 amateurs launched the 72-hole medal test. Snead, making his first open start, was the bookmakers' choice to win, at 8 to 1, the first time a freshman ever has had this distinction.

The veteran campaigners, however, while admitting that the West Virginian was master of every shot, were not so sure that he had the experience or the "tournament touch" to finish at the peak against the all-star field.

Eighteen holes were scheduled today, and the same task faced the field for tomorrow. At the end of the second round the field will be cut to the low-scoring 60, and all ties for the 60th spot, and that group will go into the 36-hole stretch drive Saturday.

The top 36 at the finish will split $5,000, a fifth of that amount going to the champion. The low amateur gets a medal.

Portsmouth Holds Slim Lead In M-A

COLUMBUS, June 10.—The sea-saw battle for leadership of the Mid-Atlantic Baseball league saw Portsmouth holding a two-point margin over Springfield today after the latter team had held the lead one day.

The Indians climbed to the top without playing last night, rain preventing their meeting Zanesville, as the cellar Johnston outfit beat Springfield 11 to 7.

Other games saw Akron whip Dayton 5 to 1 and Charleston nose out Canton 8 to 7.

Jesse Owens Beats Greyhound In Race

CINCINNATI, June 10.—Jesse Owens, who last winter won a horse-race down Havana-way held victory today over Sweet Harmony, one of the nation's fleetest greyhounds.

The former Ohio State university track star was given a 150 yard start over the dog in a special race run last night at the Harrison dog track, west of the city. He ran the remaining 180 yards of a three-sixteenth mile course in 14.8 seconds, while the dog, closing in fast, covered the full distance in 19.4.

EXAMINE LOUIS AT CAMP TODAY

Will Determine If Auto Mishap Had Effect On Brown Bomber

CHICAGO, June 10.—Joe Louis was due for a double-barreled going-over—including an official search for automobile accident injuries—by the Illinois State Athletic commission today at his Kenosha, Wis., training camp.

Chairman Joe Triner, George Getz and Dr. Frank Lagorio, the commission's physician, had planned to devote this afternoon to seeing for themselves how far the Brown Bomber has progressed in preparing himself for his battle with Champion James J. Braddock at Comiskey park, June 22. It was to have been one of those routine "say ah" and stethoscope things.

The visit assumed more serious proportions, however, after Louis' automobile, with the Bomber himself aboard, rammed another car after yesterday's light workout. Triner was assured by telephone that the Negro challenger had escaped injury, but wanted to have Dr. Lagorio's professional judgment.

The mishap occurred when Louis' car, driven by Carl Nelson, Negro policeman-bodyguard, crashed into one operated by Davis E. Hamilton of Kenosha, as the latter drove away from a curb.

In spite of reassuring messages insisting that Louis had suffered no damage, Triner was more than a little upset over the accident particularly when he thought of what might have happened.

"BEAUTY HINTS"

by
ANTOINETTE DONNELLY

"If cold cream and massage fail to do the work in keeping off the dreaded crow's feet, pay the eye-sight specialist a visit and have your eyes examined. It may be that you are straining them and need glasses.

If lines begin to appear and the dreaded crow's feet show around the outer edges, think of massage, but think also of an eye examination. Massage will bring the texture of the skin back to normalcy, but if eyestrain is present, the art of the beauty specialist is of no permanent avail. The remedy lies in relieving muscle strain."

A Thrilling Spill—Not on the Schedule

Caught by the camera during a flag and barrel race at Ringwood, Australia, in the Auto-Cycle Union's championship meet, this spill was one of the unscheduled thrills of the day. Luigi Cianciarulo is the motorcyclist and Thomas Affleck the passenger. They turned turtle after Affleck had grabbed the flag rounding one of the barrels. Neither was seriously injured.
